Make It a Long Weekend

If you are planning to be in Cookeville in September you might want to extend your stay. A full weekend of fun is in store September 8th through 11th:

September 8th The Tennessee Tech Football team takes on Lambuth University at 7:00 pm for a rare Thursday night game followed by a dazzling fireworks show! And hold on to that ticket stub. It's good for a discount at Fall Funfest. For more information go to www.ttusports.com.

September 9th Fall FunFest opens at 5:00 pm featuring the Cookeville Cook Off presented by Corona, Family Fun Zone, Bank of Putnam County High School Battle of the Bands and great live music on the Coca Cola Stage. Bring your ticket stub from Thursday night's football game for a discounted price on a wristband good for the moon walk, giant slide, obstacle course and castle maze.

September 10th Fall FunFest continues with the Eloqui Wireless Fun Run (7:00 am), WCTE-TV Stations of Imagination (10:00 am), a wide variety of food, activities for the whole family and live music all day on the Coca Cola stage. Watch for updates at www.fallfunfest.com.

September 11th The Bryan Symphony Orchestra performs music from the movies, light classics, and patriotic favorites in the wonderful atmosphere at Dogwood Park Pavilion. Concert begins at 7:30. Go to www.bryansymphony.org for more information.

Don't miss a minute of the fun – book a room and make it a long weekend. Call the Baymont Inn at (931) 525-6668 for great rates just minutes away from downtown Cookeville.
